

To whom it may concern:I want you to know I have been a customer of XM Radio since April and very much enjoy the good quality programming offered there. I have been a fan of radio since I was little and my family used to sit around the console radio we had to listen to "Gangbusters," "Our Miss Brooks" and other gems of the past. Please do not allow special interest groups to squash this great addition to the airwaves.